

Kennedy Asks 'Peace Race'

U.S. Presents Broad Disarm Plan To U.N.

Would Prohibit A-Arms Shift To 'Have Nots'

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The United States gave the United Nations a broad new disarmament plan Monday with a new idea—that the atomic powers agree at the outset not to shift control of any atomic weapons to any other countries.

President Kennedy outlined the plan to the General Assembly in a wide-ranging 38-minute speech. The U.S. delegation handed the details to the U.N. secretariat to be passed around to the 99 countries in the assembly and on the Disarmament Commission.

Kennedy proposed that disarmament negotiations, broken off by the Soviet Union 15 months ago, should "resume promptly and continue without interruption until an entire program for general and complete disarmament has not only been agreed upon but actually achieved." He suggested they work on the new U.S. plan.

Gradual Process
The President said the plan would proceed gradually under international inspection "until it has abolished all armies and all weapons except those needed for internal order and a new U.N. peace force." "And," he added, "it starts that process now, today, even as the talks begin."

He challenged the Soviet Union "not to an arms race, but to a peace race, to advance with us step by step" to full disarmament. He said the new program included these proposals:

"First, signing the test-ban treaty, by all nations. This can be done now. Test ban negotiations need not and should not await general disarmament talks."

"Second, stopping the production of fissionable materials for use in weapons, and preventing their transfer to any nation now lacking nuclear weapons."

"Third, prohibiting the transfer of control over nuclear weapons to states that do not now own them."

Three-Stage Program
"Fourth, keeping nuclear weapons from seeding new battle-grounds in outer space."

"Fifth, gradually destroying existing nuclear weapons and converting their materials to peaceful uses; and

"Finally, halting the unlimited testing and production of strategic nuclear delivery weapons, and gradually destroying them as well."

These points were elaborated in a 2,700-word "declaration on disarmament" containing a three-stage U.S. outline program for "general and complete disarmament in a peaceful world"—the bulk of the documentation submitted for U.N. distribution.

The third point had never been proposed formally before. It would bar the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France from handing control over any nuclear weapons to countries now without them.

South Africa Hints At Pullout From U.N.

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) —South African Foreign Minister Eric H. Louw, protesting Monday against the General Assembly decision to debate South Africa's racial problems again, hinted that his government may one day pull out of the United Nations.

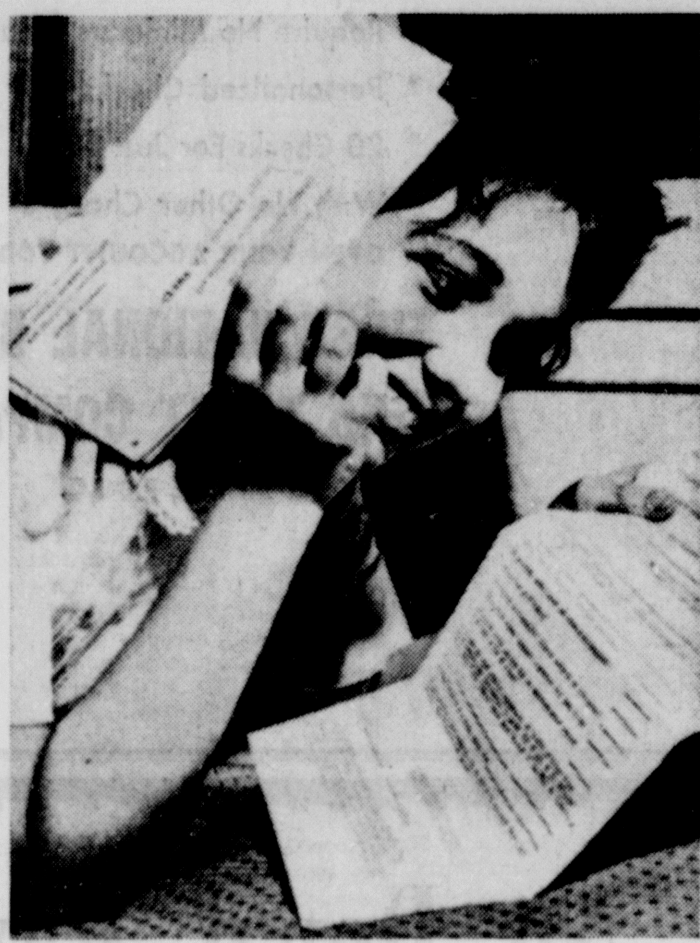

"While the Republic of South Africa continues to be a member of the United Nations organization, we will continue to protest against this intrusion into our internal affairs and against the violation of a basic principle of the (U.N.) charter," he told the assembly.

Surprise Planned

Susan Carson studies questionnaire she received for federal jury duty before filling it out and mailing it back to the federal district court clerk. "I'd sure like to see that clerk's face when he sees I was born April 6, 1947," the 14-year-old Burbank, Calif., junior high school girl told a reporter. "Actually, I'd like to serve," she added. Her father, Wilbur N. Carson, thinks her name was taken from the telephone book since Susan has her own phone.

Senate Leader Aims For Windup Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders clutched vainly for adjournment Monday on the congressional merry-go-round. They drew an unwanted brass ring giving them another day's ride, at the least.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana announced Tuesday's session will start one hour earlier, at 11 a.m. instead of the usual noon, in hopes of winding up the session Tuesday night.

Mansfield gave up any thought of adjourning Monday night after he was blocked in an effort to speed action on the last big bill awaiting disposition—a $1-billion supplemental appropriation measure financing scores of miscellaneous government programs.

Sen. Winston L. Prout, R-Vt., objected when Mansfield asked for unanimous consent to waive the rules and bring the bill up immediately. Under the rules the bill could not be considered until Tuesday.

Under that schedule adjournment late Tuesday would be the best the leadership could aim for. While the supplemental money bill held the key to adjournment, there were other items remaining to be disposed of.

One of these was the foreign aid appropriation bill which has passed both the Senate and House but in differing amounts. The House voted $3,657,600,000 for the program and the Senate added $339 million to this figure. Senate and House conferees were trying to compromise the difference.

Another last-minute money gap apparently was closed when Senate the House conferees agreed on a public works measure carrying funds for flood control, navigation and reclamation projects. The bill also carries money for the Atomic Energy Commission. The House had voted $3,662,701,380

Youths Grieve Over Pal's Death In Game Of 'War'

McHENRY, Ill. (UPI) — Four youths who played a game of "war" with loaded rifles grieved Monday over the death of a pal in "one of those goofy things kids do without thinking."

They tired of aiming at targets, they said, and divided into two teams for a game of "war."

Dowd said Nova and Conrad Kuby, 16, went behind a small rise in a farm field. Springer, Kenneth Phillips, 16, and Thomas Murray, 18, took up stations about 150 yards away.

"They said they began shooting in the general direction of each other, but aiming over each other's heads," Dowd said. "It was apparently one of those goofy things kids do without thinking of the consequences."

Nova stepped from behind a tree and slumped forward, a bullet in his chest.

Republicans Praise JFK's U.N. Address

Eisenhower, GOP National Chairman Applaud President

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republicans put aside criticism of President Kennedy's foreign policy Monday and joined Democrats in praising his speech to the United Nations as a road map toward peace.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who recently attacked some of Kennedy's overseas moves, said he agreed with the Chief Executive's declaration that the world would not find security in ever-growing arsenals.

GOP National Chairman William E. Miller, one of the most outspoken critics of Kennedy's foreign policy, said the President "summed up the hopes, the aspirations of all the American people."

Interrupt Meeting To Listen

Eisenhower, Miller, Sen. Barry Goldwater, Ariz., chairman of the GOP Senate Campaign Committee, and Rep. Robert Wilson, Calif., head of the Republican House Campaign Committee, listened to Kennedy while meeting at Eisenhower's Gettysburg, Pa., office.

Miller termed Kennedy's thinking "the same as General Eisenhower's had been for eight long years."

Applauding Kennedy for laying out a "magnificent hope" of peace, Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen said the future still depended on the Communists response.

The Illinois Republican, who has criticized administration foreign policy in the past, especially praised Kennedy's firm stand on Berlin and on the need for a one-man replacement for the late U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

Sen. Scott's Reaction

Sen. Hugh Scott, Pa., former GOP national chairman, said the President had challenged the conscience of mankind. He said the United Nations could be saved as an instrument of peace if leaders of the "uncertain nations" faced Kennedy's proposals with maturity and wisdom.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., said Kennedy "reflected the essentials of the bipartisan foreign policy and will accordingly get united support at home." He said the speech "should put at rest any question as to U.S. determination to defend freedom's fundamental rights by all the force it will command, including nuclear means if need be."

Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., said the speech "bore the imprint of responsible statesmanship."

Dag Okayed U.N. Action In Katanga

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—A U.N. official said Monday Dag Hammarskjöld approved the recent military operation against secessionist Katanga and the troops' orders came from U.N. headquarters in Leopoldville, not from the Congo government.

"It would be wrong to assume that we acted in Katanga without the approval of the secretary-general," Michel Tombelaine told a news conference. "There were so many cables at the time that I could not say who signed the actual go-ahead."

Tombelaine, a Frenchman, is second in command to Conor Cruise O'Brien, an Irishman, in the civilian U.N. setup in Elisabethville, Katanga's capital. He denied that O'Brien, whom Katanga President Moïse Tshombe has accused of trickery, was personally responsible for the U.N. troop movements Sept. 13 that set off an eight-day war.

Hammarskjöld arrived in the Congo that day.

An aide who traveled with him told newsmen at Leopoldville Airport the U.N. chief had heard of the fighting when his plane reached Accra, Ghana. Hammarskjöld died in a plane crash on a peace mission five days later.

Reuther Says Offer By Ford Unsatisfactory

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. offered the United Auto Workers Monday virtually the same economic package on which the union settled with General Motors Corp.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther conceded Ford's offer follows broad outlines of the GM settlement, but added "the details are not satisfactory."

Reuther declined to discuss specific details with which he was unhappy, but said: "There are several things the Ford Motor Co. can do, ought to do, and we will insist they must do."

With final wrapping up of a GM agreement Sunday night, the union reiterated it expected an improved offer from Ford, and it has International Executive Board authority to strike if demands are not met.

The Ford offer—second in the Big Three 1961 negotiations in the auto industry—came Monday as GM slowly picked up headway in car production after a crippling two-week strike.

The strike, based on local plant issues, closed virtually the entire operation of the world's biggest manufacturing firm, employing 350,000 persons.

Chrysler has yet to make an offer to the UAW.

Ford's offer, covering 165,000 hourly paid workers in 85 plants, was made to a union negotiating team headed by Reuther.

The UAW estimates its package deal with General Motors gives workers more than 12 cents an hour in additional take-home pay. The auto industry average pay has been $2.80 an hour.

Malcolm L. Denise, Ford vice president-labor relations, presented the company's proposal in documented form.

In an accompanying letter, Ford made its offer contingent upon "peaceful conclusion of new agreements—national and local—within the next two weeks and ratification within a mutually agreed upon time thereafter."

The union's rank-and-file membership votes on all its contracts.

Police, Troops Quell Rioting In Algiers

ALGIERS (UPI) — Rioting students barricaded downtown Algiers streets with captured buses Monday night in a screaming demonstration for a "French Algeria." Police and troops finally quelled the rioting after menacing the demonstrators with machine guns.

Thousands of riot police wielded clubs and turned pressure hoses spouting blue-dyed water on the students who turned out several hundred strong in a demonstration called by the Secret Army Organization (OAS).

The rioting started when police moved in to tear down black flags of the right-wing underground "Secret Army." The clash-and-run tussle between police and students continued until after dark.

Hawaii Volcano Spouting Lava

HILO, Hawaii (AP) — Lava spouted up 15 to 100 feet Monday from unpredictable Kilauea volcano. It was the third eruption in three days.

Farmers of Pahoa, a village of 1,100 on the slopes of Kilauea, were ready to evacuate if lava threatens. Three other small farming villages were evacuated as the result of other recent eruptions and a series of earthquakes.

A tremor Sunday cracked the foundation of a Hilo school housing 87 evacuees from the villages of Kaueleau, Opihikao and Kalapana.

The newest eruption was only 12 miles from Pahoa.

Adenauer, 85, Gives Thought To Retirement

LONDON (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, 85, told a British TV audience Monday night he is thinking of retiring. "I have no intention of having four more years. I have had enough," said the West German leader.

The chancellor was featured briefly in the TV news program "Panorama," broadcast weekly to a British audience of millions. He made his reference to retirement after being asked how long he would stay in office if re-elected chancellor.

Interviewed on the same program, West German Defense Minister Franz Josef Strauss said many people thought it would be a good thing if Adenauer established a new Cabinet and guaranteed a transition to another chancellor who would—"according to firm conviction"—be Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard.

Adenauer and Strauss expressed their views in prerecorded statements.

The chancellor was busy in Bonn working out preliminaries for the possible formation of a national coalition government in West Germany.

Johnson Warns Soviet Against Berlin Blunder

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson said Monday night Soviet leaders will "blunder into an irreparable catastrophe" if they misjudge the United States' willingness to defend Berlin.

Johnson said in a speech prepared for the annual Southern Governors Conference, "We are not paying any blackmail. We are not deserting our obligations to West Berlin."

The vice president praised President Kennedy's speech earlier in the day before the United Nations in which Kennedy told the General Assembly the United States has both the will and the weapons to resist Communist aggression.

Johnson said he hopes the Soviets make no mistake about this point.

"We challenge no one," he said, "but we never surrender under threats. The path of reason, of diplomacy, of negotiation, of honorable settlement is open. We want to take it."

"We seek peace but we shun appeasement because we know it is surrender on the installment plan and the signal for ultimate war. Our power is a pledge of peace, not an incitement to conflict."

Johnson said the Soviet Union is trying to destroy the work of the late Dag Hammarskjöld because the U.N. secretary-general made it possible "for the United Nations to take executive action to defend world peace."

"This certainly is a new reality in world affairs. It is a development which may yet shape the future and defeat the ambitions of dictators," the vice president said.

"Today the United Nations can place troops in the field, under its own authority, even when all the Communist-led nations are opposed to such an action. A new principle has been established and has been put to work in the Gaza Strip in the Middle East and in the confused anxieties of the Congo."

Red Bulldozers Creating Berlin No-Man's Land

BERLIN (UPI) — Communist bulldozers ground out a 300-foot-wide zone of death on the East Berlin side of the city border Monday, crushing summer houses and garden plots blocking a view of the barbed wire barricade.

A dozen East Berliners fled to the West Monday and another 20 made it to safety during the night but hundreds of others were forced into trucks and driven to temporary quarters in school buildings miles from the border.

West Berliners braced for new Communist pressures following the disclosure that East German Communist leader Walter Ulbricht had flown to Moscow. His last Moscow visit was followed within days by the Aug. 13 sealing of the East-West city border.

New troubles also were feared

Soviet Union Is Challenged By President

Warns That World Must Control Arms Or Face Destruction

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER — UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — President Kennedy solemnly challenged the Soviet Union to a "peace race" Monday and warned the 99 United Nations that unless men now quickly learn to control their weapons and their quarrels they may shortly destroy themselves.

The next 10 months are crucial for the future of the world, he said.

The President on his first appearance here evidently sounded his loud alarm in an effort to push the Soviet Union toward agreement on fresh negotiations over Berlin and disarmament.

He laid out a six-point disarmament plan, offering to freeze nuclear weapons production and possession virtually as soon as international controls to prevent cheating could be organized. He was challenging the Soviet Union, he said, "not to an arms race but to a peace race."

Gromyko Impassive

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko sat stolid and impassive as Kennedy spoke. He occupied a front-row seat.

Kennedy sought, too, to rally the smaller nations of the world to a campaign to save the United Nations from what he considers Soviet wrecking tactics. And simultaneously he tried to get across to Soviet Premier Khrushchev, through Gromyko, that if the Soviet Union tries to take over Berlin, Laos or any other area at the risk of war the United States stands ready to employ nuclear weapons if necessary.

The United States has "both the will and the weapons" to defend freedom, Kennedy said, but it seeks peaceful negotiation not military conflict.

After the General Assembly session ended a few minutes past noon Kennedy went to a reception in the delegates lounge. There he talked informally and privately with a group including Gromyko and Indian Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon. What they discussed was not disclosed. Gromyko and Krishna Menon made no public comment on Kennedy's speech.

Hopes For Berlin Solution

Kennedy held out hope of a peaceful solution to the Berlin crisis, but his summing up of the state of the world today rumbled with the advancing thunder of some nuclear Armageddon. His speech might have sounded much like the usual oratory of East-West propaganda duelling except that the President has been reported extremely concerned about Khrushchev's belligerence and the growing dangers of war in the last few months.

The President was greeted with a standing ovation when he entered the assembly hall. Gromyko joined in the applause. But Gromyko sat with silent hands while Kennedy spoke, though other delegations interrupted his 38-minute speech six times. So far as could be judged from the galleries other Communist bloc countries followed Gromyko's lead.

Kennedy got a 40-second ovation at the end, and assembly President Mongi Slim said just before the President left that he was sure the message would be studied by all delegations "with the attention and seriousness it warrants."

India Envoy Praises Speech

Ambassador C. S. Jha of India told reporters that it was a "very fine speech." Ambassador Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana, a leader of the 46-country Asian-African bloc, said, "It was a thought-provoking speech that needs close examination. I was very favorably impressed."

In developments of the next few days and weeks the success of the speech will be judged here in large part by how the neutralist nations like India and Ghana line up.

Gromyko Reaction One Of Caution

NEW YORK (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, in the first Soviet comment on President Kennedy's U.N. speech, said Monday "some aspects do not meet our objections regarding the possibility of negotiations on Germany."

Asked by newsmen if he saw any hopeful signs in the speech, Gromyko replied: "I would not go so far. I want to study it more thoroughly."

Gromyko said Moscow still wants joint agreement with the Western Allies on a peace treaty with East Germany.

"If there is no agreement, we are going to sign a peace treaty," he added.

Tawes Draws Mahoney Fire For Parley Absence

BALTIMORE (AP)—George P. Mahoney, candidate for governor, demanded today that Gov. Tawes explain why he didn't attend the Southern Governors' Conference at Nashville, Tenn.

"Why," asked Mahoney, "with 15 southern governors in attendance, was it necessary for Maryland's governor to be the only member of the conference who found business so pressing he couldn't be on hand?"

The conference, which opened Sunday, was to discuss preparations for possible hostilities over Berlin, including Civil Defense and reserve and National Guard unit deferments.

Other matters on the agenda were economic development, road building, nuclear energy for peacetime use, higher education and narcotics.

"Was his (Tawes') business more pressing than the agenda of the conference?" Mahoney asked.

"The international situation alone is of such paramount concern that Vice President Johnson will bring a personal message from the President to the conference.

"I am seriously concerned with this demonstration of indifference on the part of Gov. Tawes," Mahoney added.

A Baltimore County contractor, Mahoney is expected to oppose Tawes for the gubernatorial nomination in the primary next May.

Episcopalians Clarify Church Council Policy

DETROIT (AP) — Episcopal Church delegates pointedly declared Monday that the National Council of Churches doesn't speak officially for their denomination—without its specific say-so.

They also called for a full-scale inquiry into the council's procedures, pronouncements and representative system.

However, in a turbulent three-hour session, the Episcopal House of Deputies decisively beat down moves to gag the council or to pull the church out of it.

The action still is subject to concurrence by the convention's other legislative chamber, the House of Bishops.

"We're reminding the Christian world that we are not governed or spoken for by any group, the national council or otherwise," said the Rev. Samuel Steinmetz Jr., Trenton, N. J.

"We're simply saying, 'take it easy,' in speaking for the Episcopal Church."

The council is a cooperative body of 33 denominations with nearly 40 million members, including representatives of most of the nation's major Protestant, Orthodox and non-Roman Catholic Churches.

It has been widely criticized in some Protestant circles, particularly for pronouncements on social, political and economic issues.

"Certain of these pronouncements and statements have seemed to many to have been issued as if they carried the endorsement of the several constituent churches, when in fact they did not," the resolution said.

The council's official policy states that it does not speak for affiliated churches or their members—but to them.

"The trouble is that too many people are so poorly informed about what actually happens in the council," declared Michael Budzanoski, Monongahela, Pa.

Meeting Called Off By Resources Board

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—The Board of Natural Resources has called off a meeting it had scheduled with state planning officials Tuesday to discuss a controversial report on Maryland water resources.

James J. O'Donnell, state planning director, declined the board's invitation to appear.

He said in a letter he already had answered written questions submitted by board members and that the matter is scheduled to be aired at a public hearing by the Legislative Council Oct. 11.

Goldfine Letter Smuggling Report Probed By FBI

DANBURY, Conn. (AP) — The FBI has launched an investigation into reported attempts to smuggle letters to and from Bernard Goldfine, Boston industrialist now serving a sentence for income tax evasion.

Warden Frank Kenton of the federal correctional institution said three members of the prison staff have been suspended pending completion of the investigation. He said no charges have been brought.

Goldfine was placed under administrative segregation while the investigation is going on.

Under federal prison regulations a prisoner can send or receive a specified number of letters a month. The persons to whom a prisoner can write are specified.

Boy Gives Away His Brother's Life Savings

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 14-year-old boy is in trouble with the law because, police said, he gave $3,180 of his older brother's life savings to neighborhood acquaintances who needed money.

"I like to help poor people," police quoted the lad as saying. They filed grand larceny charges against him and turned him over to juvenile court for action. His name was not made public.

Police said the boy's older brother, a warehouse employee, saved about $3,500 in a tin box he hid under a pile of clothes but hadn't looked in the box since June. He did Sunday.

Detectives said the boy told them he raided the box periodically by picking the lock with a hairpin and distributed money to acquaintances. They said he gave $1,700 to two boys who wanted to buy a car, $90 to a woman who wanted money to move and $300 to a woman who wanted to repair her basement.

Police filed charges of receiving stolen property against three juveniles and Everita Barber, 44, and Anne Whitfield, 24, both of Washington.

Only $260 was recovered from beneficiaries, police said. They added the boy spent only $25 on himself—for a secondhand bicycle.

Attorneys For Rees Block 'Skull Session'

SPOTSVYLVANIA, Va. (AP)—A prosecution plan to use portions of human skulls for a dramatic comparison of bullet hole sizes was blocked Monday by attorneys for Melvin Davis Rees Jr.

Virginia's chief medical examiner, Dr. G. T. Mann, summoned for his second court room appearance, carried the four human skulls to the witness stand in a cardboard box.

But Judge John D. Butzner Jr. upheld a defense claim that the skulls should have been introduced during Mann's first appearance last week and not during re-direct examination.

Rees is on trial for the murder of Carroll Vernon Jackson, Jr., one member of a Louisa County, Va., family kidnaped and slain 32 months ago. Police also accuse Rees of killing Jackson's wife and two daughters.

Folks In English Village Strike It Rich Via Washing Powder

SNETTISHAM, England (AP)—Folks in this Norfolk village are raking riches out of their washing powder. And the detergent trade at Philip Norwood's grocery has never been better.

It happened this way: As a sales gimmick, the Thomas Hedley detergent firm started marketing the powder with a bingo card on the wrapper and a jumbled series of numbers lined up on a slip of paper inside.

A necessary digression: Bingo, a gambling game, is a current craze in Britain.

The detergent bingo is a variation on this theme. If the inside slip corresponds with any straight line of numbers on the card on the wrapper, the detergent firm advertised, the buyer can do a simple crossword puzzle and claim a prize.

The prizes included washing machines, refrigerators, record players and gold watches.

The people of Snettisham discovered that grocer Norwood's detergent was lucky. There were plenty of winning slips among the product on his shelves.

Apparently, the company had sent a whole batch of prize-winning packages in one load to Snettisham by mistake instead of only a few.

Folks bought up packages of washing powder by the dozen. "I have bought 24 packets," said

Margaret Sadler. "Now my family has claimed two refrigerators."

Said Phyllis Firth: "In 72 packets I found three winning slips. We are claiming three refrigerators."

"In over 20 years I've never done so much business," said Norwood. "I reckon my customers have claimed 5,000 pounds—$14,000—worth of prizes."

A spokesman from the manufacturers said: "Provided the entries comply entirely with the rules and the numbered slips are in order, these people will qualify for prizes."

"Thank you for employing such wonderful people"

The above words, which we value highly, are in a letter received from a young college coed. The letter goes on to say that she lost her wallet while running an errand for her family. She rushed back to the store, looked everywhere, but had no luck in finding it. Finally, sure that she would never get the wallet back, she started home feeling pretty down in the dumps.

But at almost that very minute the doorbell rang at her house and a voice said "Excuse me, I think this wallet I found belongs to someone who lives here." The voice belonged to a C & P installer, and the result was a greatly relieved young lady.

In itself this is a small thing—what any good neighbor would do. And we're glad the desire to be of help is so natural with telephone people. Whether it's a service representative taking a real interest in your problem, an operator making an extra effort, or an installer returning a lost wallet—the spirit of service is the same.

Navy Test Pilot Dies In Flaming Crash Of Plane

PATUXENT, Md. (AP) — A 29-year-old Navy test pilot was killed Monday when the twin-engine turbo-prop plane he was flying exploded, crashed and burned on the edge of the Chesapeake Bay in southern Maryland.

The victim of the flaming crash was identified by the Patuxent Naval Air Test Center as Lt. James S. Willis Jr., a pilot for the Patuxent flight test division.

A civilian employee of the base who witnessed the crash said the plane — an Army craft designated the YOAI and called the Mohawk — seemed to explode over Hawk Beach.

The crash scene was about two miles from the St. Marys County town of Ridge, along Maryland Route 5 about 12 miles south of the Patuxent base.

The Navy said the plane was on a routine evaluation flight from Patuxent when it went down. An investigation was ordered to determine the cause of the crash, the Navy said.

The Ridge Fire Department and rescue squad was called to control an intense fire that burned around the wreckage. Lt. Willis' body was recovered, and he was pronounced dead at the air station hospital.

Lt. Willis, a graduate of the Naval Academy in 1954 and the Naval Test Pilot School in 1960, is survived by his widow, Ruth Lawton Willis, and three children, Kimberly Anne 4, Patricia Lynn 23 months, and James Sturgis Willis III, 8 months. The family lives at Lexington Park, just outside the Patuxent base.

Baltimore County Budget Requests Up

TOWSON, Md. (AP) — Budget requests totaling $74,600,306 have been submitted by Baltimore County agencies for 1962, an amount $15,250,000 above the current general fund budget which was a record for the county.

Stanley Guild Jr., the county's budget director, said a tax rate boost of 88 cents over the current levy of $2.46 would be needed to meet the budget requests.

Christian H. Kahl, county executive officer, has until Nov. 1 to present the administration's proposed budget to the County Council for action. The council has until Dec. 1 to adopt a budget and set the tax rate for the 1962 year.

Cooler Weather Due In Maryland

By The Associated Press
Cooler weather is expected in Maryland later this week, the Weather Bureau says.

But until it arrives, summer will linger — at least on thermometers that will be recording temperatures averaging seven or eight degrees above normal for this time of the year.

The mercury readings for the young fall season during midweek are expected to be in the 80-degree range during the warmest parts of the day, according to the bureau's five-day outlook.

Temperatures in Maryland during the night, however, may dip into the 40s in mountain sections and into the 50-degree range elsewhere.

Some showers of a scattered variety were expected in western portions of the state Tuesday, becoming more general Wednesday and again about Saturday.

Col. Matthews Named Acting State CD Head

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — A retired Army colonel who served as chief of staff to Gen. George Patton in Europe in World War II has been named acting head of Maryland's Civil Defense agency.

The appointment by Gov. Tawes to fill the $10,500-a-year state post went to Col. Frederick S. Matthews of Timonium. La Plata native who will be 69 years old on Oct. 10.

Col. Matthews succeeds Shirley Ewing of Lutherville, whose resignation was submitted after he was charged in U.S. District Court at Baltimore with failure to file income tax returns for a three-year period.

The charges against Ewing were filed Friday. His resignation was received by mail Monday morning, and Tawes' selection of Matthews as his successor was announced quickly.

The governor said Matthews would preside Thursday at a meeting in the House of Delegates chamber here among mayors and presidents of county commissioner boards to discuss Civil Defense policy.

Col. Matthews had been deputy director of State Civil Defense under Ewing since 1956. He joined the agency as operations officer in 1952, the year he retired after completing a 35-year career in the Army.

Matthews, a widower with two grown daughters, is a graduate of St. John's College at Annapolis. He obtained a law degree from the University of Maryland Law School and was admitted to legal practice in Maryland before entering the Army in 1917.

His military decorations from two world wars include the Distinguished Service Medal and the Legion of Merit.

The walls, formerly Williamsburg green, are now antique white. Twenty gold upholstered chairs ring the oval mahogany table. A portrait of Abraham Lincoln by George P. A. Kennedy Urges Desegregation Of Restaurants

ABERDEEN, Md. (AP) — President Kennedy issued a personal plea today for an end to segregation "in restaurants and other places of public service."

The President's direct call was read to a meeting of 200 leaders of communities along U. S. 40, the main highway between New York and Washington, where Negroes have been refused public accommodations.

"It is most important that there be no discrimination of any kind based on race, creed or color against any American citizen or visitor from abroad," the President said.

"That is basic to our moral strength here at home and the nation's leadership in the world. I would deeply appreciate your individual support on this matter."

President Kennedy's telegram was read by John G. Field, executive director of the Committee for Equal Employment Opportunities.

"There are now an increasing number of diplomatic officials from Africa, Asia and other parts of the world stationed in the nation's capital," the President said.

"They frequently drive through Maryland's scenic countryside, sightseeing or on official duty. I am most anxious that they have access to all public services and other accommodations, including particularly restaurants and other needs they may have while traveling."

"Even more fundamentally, I want them to see that this country fully lives the principles of freedom and equality of opportunity for which we are striving in the world."

Field said the luncheon meeting, held at the Army's Proving Grounds, was somewhat of a pilot effort by the White House to arouse local public sentiment in favor of voluntary desegregation in public eating and sleeping establishments.

The watch was discovered missing two weeks ago.

SALISBURY (AP) — The 40 pigeons stolen from coops owned by Lonnie Gilchrist were not the homing variety.

described it as "part of a nationwide campaign which is being undertaken in more than 30 states with the cooperation of the governors of those states."

Sears May Ask For Legislation

BALTIMORE (AP) — State Insurance Commissioner F. Douglass Sears says legislation may be sought unless insurance companies agree to a voluntary plan limiting their cancellation rights.

The commissioner, on direction of Gov. Tawes, has been investigating complaints that some companies writing automobile insurance in Maryland have been cancelling policies on an arbitrary basis.

Sears' report of a New York State plan to limit cancellation rights of companies is due next month.

"Personally, I feel a voluntary plan is in order," Sears said Monday, "and I'm sure the companies will cooperate, but if not, we may have to go to the legislature."

Sears earlier had refused to order a public hearing on the complaints, saying he lacked legal authority to prescribe rules which firms may adopt with respect to risks it will keep insured.

Del. Edgar P. Silver, D-Balto 5th, chairman of the Motor Vehicles Committee of the House of Delegates, said "arbitrary cancellations are surely not in the public interest" at a time when the state is attempting "to encourage everyone to carry liability insurance."

Secrets Of Charm by John Robert Powers

It's Time To Resurrect Grandma's Brooch

Quick, where did you hide grandma's brooch? All those finely-wrought old fashioned family treasures are back in style again this fall. It's called the "heirloom look" . . . and, if you can't locate it among your souvenirs, you'll find it on jewelry counters everywhere.

Now that the tide has turned in favor of tiny jewelry, big chunky beads and pieces are momentarily waved aside. The "heirloom look" is delicately intricate . . . and deliberately ornate for evening wear.

Precious-gem colors predominate, with the most eye-catching arrangements combining brilliant clusters of stones with small cultured pearls or antique metallic mesh.

There's a swinging revival, also, in the semi-precious materials that grandma hoarded so proudly — carnelian, tortoise, jade, lapis, terra cotta, amber and garnet. Both dark and light tortoise are employed in modern designs that evoke old memories. (These should invite you to reinstate that ancient tortoise shell comb into your more elaborate coiffures.)

Drops, pendants and tassels identify the "heirloom look" in necklaces and earrings, suspended both center and off center from rope-like twists or dainty chains.

The new pins, either simple sprays or more complex and imaginative compositions, are worn singly for best effect, if they are large. But there's new drama when smaller pins are grouped close together.

The general outline and proportions in heirloom-style pieces are flattering to most women. Designs that feature small to medium size drops and pendants tend to slenderize round and full faces and add desirable length to short, heavy necks.

But be careful not to overdo the illusion or it will backfire. Necklaces TOO long and drops that hang TOO low will only accentuate Thomas Miller, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Miller, Cresaptown, was reported in "fair" condition last night at University Hospital in Baltimore.

Miller was injured during the Allegany-North High game at Hagerstown.

Youths Questioned In Theft Cases

Six local youths, ranging in age from 13 to 16 were questioned over the weekend by City Police in connection with two minor cases.

Police said the youths were picked up for questioning in the theft of a transistor radio from an automobile on Greenway Avenue and for breaking into a truck also near Fort Hill High School Stadium.

Both cases occurred while a football game was being played Friday night at the Stadium.

The radio was owned by Edward Fleming of 368 Boyd Avenue, Martinsburg.

The truck was owned by Robert C. Marker of 522 Williams Street. A number of food items were stolen from the truck.

The youths were questioned further yesterday and later this week taken to Juvenile Court as delinquent minors.

sible for keeping a police cruiser in good condition and other details and disciplinary problems of the department, and that he offered the suggestion again. The Mayor said this question may come up for council action at a later date.

Council also agreed to put the town roller in working condition and use it to help keep some of the streets in good condition.

It was also agreed that a letter be sent to Albert L. Grubb, chief of the Bureau of Bridges for the State Roads Commission, requesting information about the bridge on Union Street. SRC lowered the weight limit on the bridge from 10 tons to five tons, and council wants to know what repairs, improvements or reinforcement will be necessary to bring the bridge back to the 10 ton load limit.

A letter was read from John B. Funk, chairman of the State Roads Commission, explaining that the work between the town and Valley High School is not a sidewalk project but is work being done to stabilize the shoulder and take care of drainage.

Council has asked the SRC to build a concrete sidewalk instead of the crushed stone walk which was installed. SRC claims the commission cannot, under the law build sidewalks.

Mt. Savage Cow Sets Record

James I. Robison, of Glen-Savage farm in the Mt. Savage area, has a right to be proud of one of his cows.

A senior two-year-old Guernsey, Mulberry Hill, eminent Mary Lee, during a 365-day lactation period produced 11,613 pounds of milk and 601 pounds of butterfat, an average of 5.2 per cent of butterfat.

A record of the cow's production was completed earlier this year by the Herd Improvement Registry, a testing unit at the University of Maryland which is approved by the American Guernsey Cattle Club.

Mr. Robison, who has about 90 cows on his 400-acre dairy farm, pointed out that the average for a cow her age is about 9,000 pounds of milk and 450 pounds of butterfat.

It is believed to be the highest record of butterfat for one lactation period of 365 days in Allegany County, he said.

up on critical issues such as selection of a successor to the late Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld. What Kennedy tried to hammer home to them was that in his judgment everything they do must have the most fateful consequences: There is little margin for error.

"The events and decisions of the next 10 months," Kennedy declared, "may well decide the fate of man for the next ten thousand years."

"We shall be remembered either as the generation that turned this planet into a flaming pyre or the generation that met its vow 'to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war,'" Kennedy said.

Perhaps no leader of a major nation had ever before raised such a doomsday cry in such a great international forum. It supplied the main theme for everything he said about specific problems.

—He asserted the United States has "the will and the weapons" to fight against Red aggression and in defense of freedom. But he pledged himself to seek a peaceful solution of the Berlin crisis. He indicated readiness to accept temporarily the division of Germany between West and Communist rule.

—He proposed a six-point U. S. disarmament program and called on the Russians to help get negotiations started promptly. To a burst of applause he said, "The weapons of war must be abolished before they abolish us."

—He summoned the nonaligned nations who hold the balance of power between Russia and the Allies to reject Russia's "troika" proposal to replace Hammarskjöld with a three-man board. That would create anarchy, paralysis and confusion, Kennedy said, and would "entrench the cold war in the headquarters of peace."

—He pressed Russia to sign with the United States and Britain immediately a treaty banning nuclear weapons tests under international controls. Such a treaty said Kennedy is "the logical place to begin" disarmament.

—He recommended that all U. N. member nations start earmarking and training forces for a U. N. "peace-keeping" force, a kind of world police force. U. N. peace-making machinery also must be strengthened, the President said, and the peace-commitments of the U. N. Charter should be extended to outer space before the cold war gets there.

who believe in not doing anything to a street until it falls or taking care of it before it falls apart. Some have failed but on others, preventive maintenance will prevent failure. If nothing is done and failure occurs, then it will not be the relatively inexpensive seal that will be necessary.

"What we are talking about here is about $25 for a 50-foot front," Nuzum said, then explained that figures quoted place the cost of the smooth seal at 54 cents a foot.

Referring to parking on sidewalks, Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore Fleming said the city has an ordinance against this and to ease the situation, the department is trying to find truck stop areas for necessary streets which might necessitate removing one or more of the "doublehead" meters.

Roeder in saying he wanted to talk about "all streets" asked Commissioner Long when paving would begin on the downtown streets proposed for improvement. Long said if the ordinances pass, bids would be asked and then a decision made.

Roeder said if there is any plan to resurface streets this fall, "that is not the time to do it." He said it would be better if the city paved streets that have to be paved in sections where residents are bothered by dirt and filth.

Roeder charged that "politics are taking over" operation of the city where it used to be the citizens and businessmen. Then he added "It is time the taxpayers and businessmen get together and see what is going on."

Roeder also questioned the advisability of paving sections of some streets now and having to tear them up later. He also pointed to broken sidewalk conditions and claimed they should be put in repair first.

In a question concerning the use of smooth seal, Roeder got an answer from Nuzum in which the city engineer pointed out that the reason no previous bids were received on the material was because it was relatively new here. Since that time, School Street has been used by a local contractor as a test area and the city has been informed, he (the contractor) will submit a smooth seal material bid when it is asked again.

Roeder said in the downtown section, the city should pay all the cost of resurfacing where it is getting revenue from parking meters. And he added that unless parking is taken off Mechanic and Centre streets the city will have

Roeder said in the downtown section, the city should pay all the cost of resurfacing where it is getting revenue from parking meters. And he added that unless parking is taken off Mechanic and Centre streets the city will have the same high center and same low spots on the sides as it does now. He suggested meters be taken off the two streets, trucks be allowed to load and unload where necessary and traffic kept moving.

He said the city and property owners should "get together and work out these things."

Fleming told Roeder to his knowledge none of the "experts" here on traffic problems had recommended that move and added he had been told that the city could not take the meters off until 2,500 parking spaces have been provided. At present, he said the city has only 1,200.

Fleming added, however, that parking has to come off the streets sometime in the future but not until the 2,500 spaces are found.

Both Fleming and Roeder expressed doubt that anyone could come here and spend 40 minutes, then tell the Police Department what to do about traffic.

Roeder said "No one can come here at 4:30 in the afternoon, go to dinner at 6:30 and tell what is wrong with the town."

Nuzum said all streets included in the resurfacing program so far have been taken from the five-year program" prepared a couple of years ago. He said it is hoped the time will come when all those listed under this plan will be done.

At the close of yesterday's meeting Finance Commissioner Lucile Roeder made a motion to withhold bids on Bedford until council makes further study of the situation. It passed unanimously.

However, council's affirmative vote on the ordinance remains on the books for Bedford.

Other streets approved for resurfacing in the downtown area were Baltimore, Centre, Harrison, Henry, Frederick, Liberty, Market, Mechanic, Union, George and Polk.

Group Ends Trip Along C&O Canal

"An unforgettable experience" is the unanimous opinion of four horsemen and a chuck wagon crew who completed a 168½-mile ride along the historic C&O Canal last week.

The group, organized as the C&O Canal Camp and Trail Club, a member of the family. It took completed the six-day ride in good shape, although they were tired out after arriving here Saturday afternoon.

Riders were Upton Stokes, who was voted "trail boss" for the trip, Lee DuVall, Frank Williams and Tony Struntz, whose horse, "Sandy" played out Friday evening. Comprising the chuck wagon crew were Jack Lowery, Richard Aman, Charles Martin and Ray James.

The undertaking for the horsemen was unusual in the fact that none of the four ever participated in such a long ride before. The group averaged 30 miles each day, with the chuck wagon crew meeting the horsemen at pre-arranged locations along the waterway.

One of the principal motives for the ride was to determine the possibility of developing camping and recreation sites along the canal. A spokesman for the group said it was the general opinion of the men that the opportunity for such development was unlimited.

That recommendation will be made to the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce, with the horsemen expressing the opinion that some sort of cooperative effort between this community and the federal government can be worked out to attract vacationers and other persons to this region.

The long trip resulted in quite a bit of exercise for the horsemen since the horses were walked at least ten minutes out of each hour, with the walking time extended to about a half-hour toward the end of each day's ride.

At least half of each day's travel was completed in the morning hours, in order that the horses would not have to be "pushed" in the heat of the afternoon.

Stokes, the "Gil Favor" of the group, paced the horsemen with his "Tammy," a cross between a quarter horse and Tennessee Walker.

The group started riding each day between 9 and 10 a.m., and usually reached their destination around 6 p.m. The chuck wagon crew furnished the riders a hot meal each morning and evening, with each man being given two sandwiches to eat along the way for a lunch.

The beginning of the long trip provided the greatest difficulty, the horsemen explained there are several places along the lower end of the canal where the horses had to be walked around where the waterway tow path is impassable.

Many deer were seen along the canal, and small game was abundant. The number of gray squirrels observed was placed in the "thousands."

Although no plans for another ride have been formulated, it is expected that the trip will be placed on at least an annual basis. Motion films and "stills" were taken during the ride and these will be shown as soon as the film is developed.

Describing the scenery as "magnificent," the riders said they felt it was a shame that so few people are aware of what nature offers in this area. Aside from members of train crews, the riders said it was unusual to see more than two or three people during each day's ride.

50 Enroll For 'Y' Adult Classes

Some 50 persons have enrolled in Monday adult social education classes at YMCA. Ben Haines, program director, said yesterday.

The classes began yesterday at 7 p. m. and are scheduled each Monday for ten weeks.

Classes last night were oil painting for beginners and advanced students, under the direction of Mrs. Max Bastian, and beginners' bridge, instructed by Douglas Paulsen.

Other evening classes will begin Friday at 7 p. m. They are beginners and advanced ceramics, taught by Mrs. Thelma Noland, and American ballroom dancing, directed by Mrs. Peggy Mackert.

Ann Landers . . .

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Last Thursday was one of the hottest days in our city's history. Our wonderful 1-year-old collie was in the yard as usual. I had to fill his water pan three times.

About mid-afternoon he began to whine so I let him in the house. He looked at me pleadingly, panting a few times and then rolled over and died. Blaze was like a member of the family. It took all my strength to call my neighbor and ask her to bury him — out after arriving here Saturday afternoon.

When my husband came home I told him about Blaze. He turned on me like a maniac. He said I was stupid not to call a vet. He claims the vet might have saved him. I tried to explain Blaze dropped dead before I knew anything was wrong but he refused to listen.

My husband then went to the phone and called his mother and sisters and told them that my stupidity had killed the dog. Nothing I said seemed to get through. I'm really annoyed at him for making me out to be a nut. And advice?—WILMA

DEAR WILMA: Your husband is distraught over the death of the dog and he is reacting in a child-like manner — placing the blame on the handiest party. A dog 14 years old is equivalent to a human being of 98. I'd say Blaze lived a good, full life.

Go out and buy another collie as soon as possible. Name him Blaze, Jr. and tell your husband to button his lip already.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm getting pretty fed up on the actions of a certain man who has been coming over to play cards with my father for as long as I can remember. He always brings me a sack of candy as if I were two years old.

I'm 15 now and I think it's time he stopped trying to kiss me on the lips and pull me onto his lap. I told my mother that maybe this was all right when I was a baby but I'm a young lady now and I hate it. I also told her that if he doesn't stop pawing me I am going to sock him right in the chops. May I have your O.K.?—NO INFANT

DEAR NO INFANT: Sorry, but a young lady doesn't go around socking her father's friends — or anyone else—in the chops.

You are perfectly right to resent his behavior but there's a better way to handle the old coot. Tell him you've outgrown the baby stuff and from now on his greeting is a handshake. If he doesn't get in line tell your father to give him the message — man to man.

DEAR ANN: I'm a bride of two months who needs your opinion. I attended college in the southeast and graduated three years ago. Since then I have carried on a rather extensive correspondence with college friends — both male and female.

It is my turn to answer several of these letters but my husband says a married woman should not correspond with males, even if it is platonic. I'd hate to lose track of these people because they are good friends. Our letters have always been strictly informal and I was never romantically involved with any of these fellows.

Do you feel that my husband is right? He calls it "preventive surgery."—MRS. A.W.K.

DEAR MRS. A.W.K.: I hope he's not a surgeon. Too much hacking away of healthy tissue can be dangerous.

A mature man should be able to tolerate his wife's correspondence with old college friends.

Are your parents too strict? You can benefit from the experiences of thousands of teen-agers if you write for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Live With Your Parents," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Let's Hope Our Grandchildren Laugh

Ever since Noah demonstrated the advantage of being prepared there have been at various times and in various places around the world little bands of men preparing for a doomsday of one sort or another.

In recent years there have been a number of such cults dedicated to self-survival, one perched uncomfortably on an Italian mountaintop, another holed up in burrows in southwest U. S. plains.

For the most part these doomsday-watchers have been tolerated with amusement by the more optimistic, which includes most of mankind. Mainly it was because no one trusted their mathematics or other data. So far the optimists have been right.

Lately, however, with the Kremlin's headlong resumption of nuclear tests over Siberia adding measurably to the atmosphere's radioactivity, some people who wouldn't perch on a mountaintop or crawl into a burrow are giving serious attention to the matter of survival. Among the latest to declare themselves are 12 Smithtown, L. I., families who plan to do their surviving in Chico, Calif.

Of course, there's no real assurance that Chico has special immunity to atomic catastrophe, any more than that Italian mountaintop might have been overlooked by doomsday. But the important thing, perhaps, is that some Long Island families believe they'd be better off in Chico.

Let's hope our grandchildren will be able to relate these preparations as one of the zany things this generation did.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

Trials Are Troublesome

In the record of the General Walker case appears the following paragraph of a statement by the Acting Judge Advocate:

"Although the file does . . . contain an overall indication of Hatch Act and related violations, the detailed evidence in this respect is not developed, and it is noticed that many of the witnesses, at the time of the investigation, were already claiming recollection difficulties. It is obvious that any trial for such violations would be a most difficult and prolonged undertaking, fraught with intense and emotional publicity, certainly unfavorable to the government, at least in part. A conviction would be by no means a certain result, and even if a conviction were obtained the sentence would probably amount to not more than a reprimand in view of General Walker's brilliant combat record and sincerity of purpose in attempting to fight communism."

This is, indeed, a curious argument. A trial would be costly, as all trials are. It would be embarrassing as most trials are. It would develop mass emotions which such trials do. Also there is no guarantee of conviction. Therefore, admonish General Walker; smear him; make him appear to be a madman; but keep him on the job. Apparently there would be no excitement and no publicity. Surely whoever conceived this childishness after 922 pages of testimony was taken from 40 witnesses and 229 exhibits were introduced, deserves to be taken out of a position where he can ruin men of valor. How is it possible to maintain the morale of our armed forces if such cases as that of General Billy Mitchell, General Douglas MacArthur, General Walker are examples set before officers?

Senator Harry Byrd thought that the 922 pages of testimony in the General Walker case should be made public. Senator Byrd said that the public should know about it.

According to Secretary of Defense McNamara: "There are, to the best of my knowledge . . . no restrictions other than, I think, the restriction that any responsible officer of our Military Establishment would recognize a restriction of good judgment and restraint in a period of tension and crisis in the world."

"But, to the best of my knowledge, there are no specific written instructions."

If that is so, how is an officer to know what is permissible and what is verboten? If a general is required to indoctrinate his troops against the enemy, what is he not to say? What is good judgment about Karl Marx, Stalin or even Khrushchev?

Did General Walker exceed his responsibility and authority? It could not be if the testimony of Secretary McNamara before the Senate Armed Services Committee is correct. The Secretary said:

"The responsibility for the training of the troops is with the local commanders. They are given considerable latitude in developing specific training programs to fit the needs of their personnel and their environment."

"What I have to say will be somewhat more general in character and might respond directly to your question because these programs will vary rather substantially as between commands and as between services."

In other words, General Walker could use his own judgment within the margins of good taste. However, it was brought out that speeches with foreign policy implication go to the State Department for approval. How is it possible for a military man to give his troops an anti-Communist indoctrination course without saying something negative about Soviet Russia or Red China? The censors in the State Department are Philip H. Burris, director of the Office of Policy Plans and Guidance, who reports to Assistant Secretary of State Roger Tubby. The theory of this operation is that military men may talk out of turn, might say things which could do harm, particularly during a period of delicate negotiations.

But the question must arise as to who does the censoring. Is the censor a competent person? Is he himself sufficiently informed to censor a man like Admiral Burke, for instance?

This question was brought to a climax when Senator Thurmond asked:

"To what source do you turn to determine the scope of foreign policy?"

Secretary McNamara has described sources as: "The men who have the responsibility for reviewing the public speeches and the public speeches of other civilian and military officials of the department, utilize, among other materials in determining whether these are in accordance with national policy, the National Security Council directives, the Joint Chiefs of Staff directives, the statements of the President, the statements of the Secretary of State."

Why Were The 'Freedom Rides' Necessary?

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON.—There's an unexplained paradox in the news these days. It raises several interesting questions:

First, why was it necessary to organize "freedom rides" to protest against racial discrimination in the South in seating on buses and at bus-terminal restaurants when the Interstate Commerce Commission all along has had the power to do what it has just done—issue regulations forbidding such discrimination?

Second, why did the Attorney General wait until May 29 to ask the Interstate Commerce Commission to issue these regulations?

Third, why were the organizers of the "freedom rides" given encouragement by government officials here to carry on those demonstrations when there was a remedy in existing law?

Fourth, why was the United States subjected to criticism abroad and the Soviet Union enabled to get a considerable propaganda use out of the news of the disorders at a time of international tension, and especially when the United States was seeking to win the friendship and favor of various African countries which now have votes in the U. N.?

The above questions relate to a fundamental belief which too many people have expressed that the only way to get things done is to "take the law into your own hands." This was the psychology of those who argued that the Negroes had "already waited too long for equal treatment" and that it was "about time to do something."

Not so many years ago this was the argument also of those who started mobs to do lynchings. The leaders said it was useless to wait for the long-drawn-out processes of the law to punish criminals. This was widely described as "government by mob instead of government by law and order." Indeed, when the disorders broke out at Little Rock, Arkansas, in the Autumn of 1957, criticism was heard that the incitement to violence by impassioned partisans of the cause of segregation showed that they did not believe in "law and order."

But the "freedom riders" in 1961 disregarded the fears of the local populace that "law and order" would be disrupted and that violence might result if the demonstrations were carried to the point of actual resistance to local laws.

Even some clergymen, who are supposed to teach reconciliation and certainly are not supposed to do anything remotely to provoke violence, actually participated in the "freedom rides" without getting a single letter of reprimand from the institutions, religious or educational, with which they were associated. Does this mean that "the end justifies the means" after all, and that, if the cause one believes in is a worthy one, it's all right to engage in a demonstration notwithstanding that it is likely to incite a mob to violence?

Whether one likes the "law of the land" is irrelevant, but, since it's desirable in a democracy for the people to await the normal functioning of legal processes in one cause, it is equally desirable for the partisans of any other cause to agree that "law and order" must be given an opportunity to apply its mandates through the judicial processes available.

The Kennedy Administration must have known last January that it could ask the Interstate Commerce Commission to issue regulations to cover seating in buses and terminal facilities similar to those previously issued for railways and rail-terminal facilities. Why didn't the Department of Justice advise the Negro MEMORIAL "CAVERN"—A huge, cavernous, man-made chamber has been rediscovered beneath the world's most popular monument—the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D. C.

The existence of the chamber has gone unnoticed for nearly 40 years, although a handful of Capital Park employees were aware of it. They thought everyone else responsible knew about it, too, and never thought to mention it. Apparently when the monument was built—on filled land—the chamber was left rather than haul tons of dirt to fill it. The chamber is 34 feet wide and 168 feet long. The distance from floor to ceiling is about 62 feet.

Lincoln buffs have speedily come up with plans to convert it into a two-story museum of Americana. About 2.5 million tourists visit the monument each year, and the museum would undoubtedly attract much attention if it were fixed up with Lincoln memorabilia.

RUSSIAN FIX — It now develops that the Soviet embassy in Washington has been "fixing" illegally the traffic tickets of two Russian newspapermen here.

The traffic tickets, stamped

"Embassy of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics," are being returned to the traffic violations bureau, with the implication that the Russian newsmen are protected by diplomatic immunity. But this is not the case.

Neither of the newsmen is listed as Soviet embassy personnel and they are not covered by diplomatic immunity any more than American reporters are in Moscow.

One Russian reporter, when asked about the situation, admitted he did not have diplomatic immunity. But he said ticket fixing is "a common practice for all Russian newspapermen. I never thought about it. I give all my tickets to the embassy. I do what my predecessor did."

In the last few months, one newsmen "fixed" 11 tickets which would have cost him $49; another fixed seven at a cost of $21.

There is good reason to believe that the Washington traffic violations bureau will make an effort to collect on past tickets "fixed" for the Russian reporters, and that the Soviet embassy will make no effort to "fix" such tickets in the future. But it took publicity in Washington to erase this particular bit of petty chiseling.

Treaty Guaranteeing Vatican Rights Could Be Model For Berlin Accord

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — The Communist Party and the Catholic Church don't particularly love each other, but the Vatican may prove an example to the Kremlin for solution of the Berlin crisis.

Premier Khrushchev told me last month that he was willing to help guarantee the future independence of West Berlin and provide access to it from West Germany. Senators Fulbright of Arkansas and Mansfield of Montana suggested some time ago that Berlin be an international city, perhaps with part of the United Nations located there.

President Kennedy is not averse to such a plan, and last week Khrushchev's son-in-law, Alexei Adzhubel, editor of Izvestia, published an editorial proposing that the UN be located in Berlin.

All this fits in with my recent suggestion that Berlin be made a "city of peace" in memory of Dag Hammarskjöld — with part of the UN located there. In my opinion it would be a mistake to move all the UN out of New York. It would be too great a victory for both the Goldwater isolationists and the Russians. This is something that both the Senator from Arizona and the Kremlin see eye-to-eye on.

Best example to safeguard the future of Berlin is the Lateran Treaty of 1929 guaranteeing the independence of the Holy See.

The Vatican's Guarantee

Senator Fulbright, who has made a study of this, points out that "The Vatican state is a separate sovereign juridical entity entirely surrounded by the Italian City of Rome. The treaty recognizes with precision the problem of access across Italian territory. "The Italian government is precluded from any intervention in the Vatican State," Sen. Fulbright points out. "Italy ensures the Vatican City an adequate supply of water, communication with state railways, direct connection of telegraph, telephone, radio-telegraph, radio-telephone, and postal service."

Fulbright also points out that the Lateran Treaty, if adopted for Berlin, would absolutely guarantee the transit of materials and supplies across East Germany to Berlin.

"Goods arriving from foreign countries and destined for the Vatican City," says the treaty, "shall always be admitted in transit over Italian territory at any point on the Italian frontier and at any Italian port, with entire exemption from customs."

Premier Khrushchev repeated to me several times last month that he would cooperate in any kind of guarantees for a free city of Berlin — after a peace treaty was signed with East Germany. "We are going to sign that treaty," he said. "Sixteen years after a war is long enough to wait. It would be the happiest day for us if you would join us in the treaty. But we are going to sign anyway."

Once that treaty is signed, the wartime military occupation of West Berlin ceases, he said. However, he emphasized that he would be willing to cooperate in guaranteeing the future independence of West Berlin if he in turn recognized East Germany.

The example of the Vatican Treaty and the opportunity to memorialize Dag Hammarskjöld by making Berlin a "city of peace" may prove the way out of the present deadlock.

Silver Mama

The appointment of Eva Adams, the Nevada silver mama, as director of the Mint has elated the silver producers who pulled political strings to get her the job. It will put her in a position to influence the government's silver sales, which the producers want to stop. This would drive prices up and bring Red China into the market.

The government is forced by law to pay at least 90 cents an ounce for domestic silver, but it is also empowered to sell its reserve silver for 91 cents an ounce.

Since silver is now in short supply, this holds down the price for domestic consumers who use the precious metal in the manufacture of jewelry, film, electrical connections, and silverplating.

The producers' lobby has been trying to get Uncle Sam out of the market and push up the price of silver since 1959. Its most colorful spokesman is millionaire J. B. Lynch, chairman of the Siscon Silver Mines in Canada, who recently called upon all his U. S. stockholders to write to their Senators urging silver conservation.

Capitol Hill was suddenly deluged with letters, demanding that Uncle Sam stop selling silver and save its reserves.

Lynch was behind the move to plant Miss Adams as director of the mint which buys and sells silver for coinage. She used to be administrative assistant to the late Sen. Pat McCarran, Nevada Democrat, who openly championed the silver interests. She stayed on as administrative assistant to McCarran's successor, Sen. Alan Bible, whose law firm represents silver producers.

Significantly, Miss Adams is taking a $970-a-year salary cut in order to head the Mint.

She acknowledged to this column that silver-lobbyist Lynch has visited her in Washington and she has visited him twice at his summer mansion in Florida. She denied, however, that he would influence her decisions as mint director.

Note: If the mint withdraws from the silver market as the producers wish, Communist China is sure to move in. The Chinese Reds sold 10,000,000 ounces of silver to the West last year.

Moses In Wilderness

By John Crosby

I think Robert Moses is a great man. In some areas. I also think he's foolish in many interesting ways. Of course, you can argue that all the great men are bloody fools about something or other and one of Mr. Moses's particular areas of unreason is the automobile.

Mr. Moses, who is chairman of New York State Council of Parks, thinks there is no situation that a six-lane highway won't cure, a proposition that I consider highly debatable. The idea that the automobile has absolute rights to invade any area is one of the silliest if not downright evil ideas our best thinkers have to overthrow.

One small step in this direction is the so-called wilderness bill now under study in the State Legislature. In New York state's million odd acres of forest preserve, the bill sets aside certain wilderness areas from which cars and jeeps and airplanes and motorbikes would be excluded. This is eminently sensible. With a burgeoning and increasingly prosperous population, there are constant pressures to commercialize areas that were set aside as "forever wild," an increasingly forlorn phrase.

However, the automobile changes the whole nature of a wilderness. Jeeps have invaded some of the remote wilderness areas, bringing in, among other things, portable stoves (which increase fire hazards), cases of whisky (which increase it even more) and all the other debris of civilization which breaks wilderness down into just another litter area. What the wilderness bill attempts to do is not to close these areas to the public, but to close them to the mechanical monsters of civilization. The public is free to come on the two feet that God gave them, carrying what supplies they can manage on their backs.

As an old Wisconsin camper — we used to portage the canoes on our own shoulders — I find this a refreshing limitation on the gasoline engine and one that is greatly overdue. But not Mr. Moses, who came charging out of his lair the other night to assault the wilderness bill as "a monstrosity."

"The rank and file of the people in our cities must be taught life in the open. They can't rough it in the sense of sleeping in tents and on the ground, said Mr. Moses. "They require reasonable access, running water, and simple sanitary facilities."

That's what the man said. Now, why, Mr. Moses, can't the rank and file—and I'm as rank and file as any man in this house — rough it? Why can't they sleep in the open and on the ground, Mr. M.? What is so soft, lazy, and downright sissy about the rank and file of our people that they can't sleep on the ground as their forefathers did?

If they want roads, cabins, reasonable access (which is another way of saying they want to bring the station wagon) and running water and simple sanitary facilities (a tree is the best simple sanitary facility ever made), then, damn it, they ought to go someplace else besides the wilderness area. If they need all those things, then they're not wilderness people and there are plenty of resort areas where they can flush toilets, race their engines all day long, and sleep on box mattresses.

By its very nature, a wilderness should not be too easy to get to, too easy to penetrate, and too easy to get out of. That's half the fun and all the challenge. It should also not be too full of the rank and file at any one time. There's nothing undemocratic about that. No one's being locked out, as Mr. Moses suggests, except those too lazy to paddle or walk.

The people who want wilderness want wilderness, not sanitary facilities, for crying out loud, loud. Moses is trying to make sissies of us.

Oldsters Worry Too Much About Insomnia

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Insomnia bothers many older persons. Our drug stores are filled with sedatives to bring sleep to these people. The list includes the barbiturates, chloral hydrate, and a variety of newcomers such as Valmid, Placidyl, and Cardinal. But sedatives should not be used until the possible causes have been investigated.

The number of hours spent in sleep diminishes from birth to old age. Some of the elderly adjust to the lessening need by going to bed at the usual time and wake up early, rarin' to go.

But too many do not recognize the changing pattern and become upset when they cannot sleep the full eight hours. Many begin to fidget around 8 or 9 p.m., wondering whether they will sleep better than last night. Such a dim view deprives them of sleep because it makes them restless. Their anxiety is aggravated by the ensuing anger or the concern as to what might happen if they go through another night of insomnia.

Their problem is self-made. They do not realize their sleep requirements are not as great as when they were younger and more active. Insomnia usually disappears when they understand what is happening. Furthermore, there is no harm in breaking up sleep into periods of three to five hours. Any combination is fine so long as the individual stops worrying about it.

Pain, noise, and discomfort in general affect sleep. The same can be said of emotional disturbances including depression, anxiety, and fear. The depressed oldster has no trouble dozing off but awakens in a nervous state early in the morning and cannot get back to sleep.

Try And Stop Me

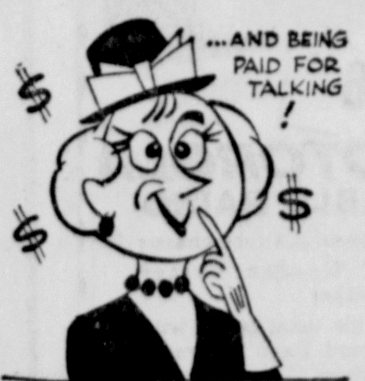

By Bennett Cerf

John Mason Brown, at present engaged upon a definitive biography of the late Robert Sherwood, is, without qualification, the most popular women's club lecturer in the country. When a Southern aunt heard how much Mr. Brown takes in each year for his speaking tours, she exclaimed in utter disbelief, "You don't mean to say that one of us Browns is actually being PAID for TALKING!"

It was the late Professor Irwin Edman, reveals Publisher Max Schuster, who first sang the praises of Author Herman Wouk, author of "The Caine Mutiny" and "Marjorie Morningstar." "In fact," says Schuster, "Edman was the catalytic agent." Asked "exactly what is a catalytic agent?" Schuster explained loftily, "A catalytic agent is one who doesn't receive ten per cent."

A man who hides behind a woman's skirts today, opines Charles Denton, is not only a coward, but a magician.

Westernport Adopts Plan For Yuletide Decorations

WESTERNPORT—The Westernport Business Improvement Association is formulating plans for street lighting decorations during the Christmas season.

Arnold Clark, committee chairman, was authorized to purchase three large street decorations from the Art R. Cohen Company, Pittsburgh, at a cost of $400 each, including switches.

The "On Dasher-On Dancer" type decorations with Santa Claus and sleigh, are 39 inches high and 51 inches long. They will be strung across Main Street in the business area of the town.

Clark said the lights will be turned on Thanksgiving Eve and remain in operation until January 1.

The association has set a goal of $1,200 for the decorations. Additional money received will be used for other decoration.

Mayor Ray L. Wilt announced the town will contribute up to $600 toward the project, which would include the expense of installing the fixtures and taking them down. It was reported that approximately $320 had already been donated or promised toward the program. Making reports were Okey E. Michael, president; Miss Naoma Flanagan, secretary; Mrs. Margaret Green, Joseph Ellis and Clark.

Mrs. Green reported that Victory Unit 155, American Legion Auxiliary, will make a house-to-house solicitation. Miss Flanagan mailed letters to all organizations, asking for donations.

The committee plans to complete the drive by October 31.

Town officials will follow the annual custom of erecting a Christmas tree with ornaments at the intersection of Main and Church Street. The Tri-Hi-Y Club of Bruce High School will place containers in business places to defray expenses.

Another meeting of the association will be held October 16.

Pennant-Bound Reds Face Teams That Give Them Most Trouble

Cincy Plays Cubs Today In Chicago

Close Out Season With Bucs; "Magic Number" Is Two

CINCINNATI (AP) — If the Cincinnati Reds win the National League championship on their own, they'll have to do it against the two clubs that have caused them the most trouble this season. The Reds, who have the "magic number" of two—Cincinnati victories and/or Los Angeles defeats—to clinch the pennant, will meet the Chicago Cubs at Chicago Tuesday and then will close out the season with three games at Pittsburgh Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Meanwhile the Dodgers have six games remaining with Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Chicago. Cubs lead 12 To 9

The Cubs, although buried deep in seventh place, hold a 12-9 margin over Cincinnati for the season. The Reds finally squeezed ahead of Pittsburgh on the season series last week when they swept a pair of games with the dethroned champs, but the margin is only 10-9.

Resting Monday, Manager Fred Hutchinson said he will pitch Bob Purkey against the Cubs.

"I'll pitch (Jim) O'Toole, (Joey) Jay and Purkey in Pittsburgh," he added.

Although Purkey has been one of the three top pitchers on the Reds' roster, he never has had a lot of success against Chicago. He has dropped two of three decisions to the Bruins this year and has a lifetime record of only 9-11 against them.

Hutchinson bemoaned a seige of wildness Reds hurlers had in losing two of three to San Francisco. They walked 16 men in the three games and nine of the walks were converted into runs.

Club officials also disclosed that if the Reds clinch the pennant Tuesday the team will come home for a victory celebration. If the pennant isn't clinched, the team will go direct to Pittsburgh to wait out the two days of rest.

As the season moved into its last week, only two Cincinnati players were ailing to any extent. Third baseman Gene Freese still has a bit of trouble with a jammed ankle and outfielder Vada Pinson has a sore hand.

Pinson has stayed in the lineup but Freese sat out one of the Giants games and also was relieved late in Sunday's contest.

Tom McGeary Makes ARDBC Honor Roll

Tom McGeary, one of Cumberland's outstanding pin spillers, appears on the Honor Roll of the American Rubberband Duckpin Bowling Congress for the 1960-61 season.

McGeary is listed among a group of bowlers who were unable to compete in enough games or for other reasons did not qualify for the top thirty.

The top thirty is headed by Norman Henning, of McKeesport.

All of the pinmen in the top thirty and on the Honor Roll are Pennsylvanians except McGeary.

A Pirate front office spokesman said it was a waiver deal.

Green, 28, of Titusville, N. J., had spent his entire career in organized baseball with the Pirate organization. He was signed to a contract with the Brunswick, Ga., Class D team in 1952 and first moved up to the parent club three seasons ago.

A 6-4, 190 pounder, Green started the current season with Pittsburgh but was optioned to Columbus of the International League in June. He compiled a 7-3 mark for the pennant-winning Jets, appearing in 14 games. Earlier in the season he pitched in 13 games for the Pirates but did not figure in any decisions.

Tigers Explode In 8th To Trim Athletics, 6-4

Detroit Cinches Runner-Up Berth

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — The Detroit Tigers exploded for five runs in the eighth inning Monday night to take a 6-4 win from the Kansas City Athletics in the first game of a doubleheader.

The victory cinched second place for Detroit.

Hank Aguirre picked up the victory in relief after relieving starter Don Mossi. The loser was Jim Archer, who suffered his 14th defeat.

After trailing throughout most of the game, the Tigers started their big eighth inning rally when Steve Boros doubled and scored on a single by Jake Wood.

Then with two away pinch-hitter Al Kaline tripled and was plated on a single by another pinch-hitter, Vic Wertz. Bill Bruton then doubled home another run and he scored on Bubba Morton's single.

The Athletics had taken a 3-1 lead in the fourth on a double by Bobby Del Greco, Jerry Lumpe's single and Norm Siebern's 18th home run of the season.

Detroit's first run came in the second inning when Boros walked and scored on Wood's triple.

David Freed, the U.S. non-playing captain, said the choice of gravel rather than grass would not hurt the Americans. The big advantage the Indian team will have is playing at home where the conditions are familiar and their stomachs are adjusted to the food, Freed said.

The last member of the squad to reach New Delhi was Chuck McKinley, who arrived Monday. The other team members — Whitney Reed, Donald Dell, and Martin Riessen — arrived Sunday. The Indians are Wimbledon semifinalist, Ramanathan Krishnan, Naresh Kumar, Premjit Lal and Jaideep Mukherjee.

Pirates, Dodgers Play Twice Today

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Heavy rain forced postponement of the Pittsburgh-Los Angeles baseball game Monday night.

Because of the importance of the game to the National League pennant race, officials waited nearly two hours before postponing the game.

It was rescheduled as part of a two-night doubleheader Tuesday. Don Drysdale and Stan Williams were scheduled to pitch for Los Angeles against Bob Friend and Joe Gibbon.

Romney Hands Ft. Hill JV's First Defeat Since 1957

Pioneer Junior Varsity Gridders Ring Up 20-7 Win

Romney High School's Jayvees handed the Fort Hill junior varsity football team its first defeat since late in the 1957 season by upsetting the Little Sentinels yesterday at Romney by the score of 20-7.

Fort Hill was unbeaten and tied once in 25 games prior to yesterday's setback. The tie was a 19-19 affair with Allegany last November. Fort Hill had won its first two games of the current campaign. Romney was making its initial start of the season under Coach Don Peters.

Gary Beckward scored on a pass from Harper and Charley Redinger ran the extra point to give Fort Hill a 7-0 lead in the opening period but Romney came back with a pair of touchdowns in the second period and one in the final quarter to win the game.

Wade's 15-yard pass to Joe Carl produced the first Romney touchdown while Joe Breinig smashed over from the two for the second six-pointer. Carl made a 15-yard end run for the final score. James Alkire kicked both extra points.

The teams will play a return game here October 23.

Yanks Lose Cerv For World Series

NEW YORK (AP) — Outfielder Bob Cerv was lost Monday to the New York Yankees for the World Series due to an impending operation and he was replaced by Jack Reed on the Yanks' list of series eligibles.

Commissioner Ford Frick announced he has approved the substitution of Reed for Cerv.

Cerv re-injured a cartilage in his right knee Saturday just before he hit a pinch homer in Boston. Due to a previous injury he had planned to have an operation this winter but the re-injury changed that plan.

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — Leo Hirschfield, Minneapolis, considered the nation's number one oddsmaker, will no longer furnish odds on athletic events.

Hirschfield made the announcement in this week's Gridiron Record, a football publication he edits each fall.

"Because of the passage of certain legislation by Congress," he said, "we will no longer be able to furnish odds on football, basketball and basketball games."

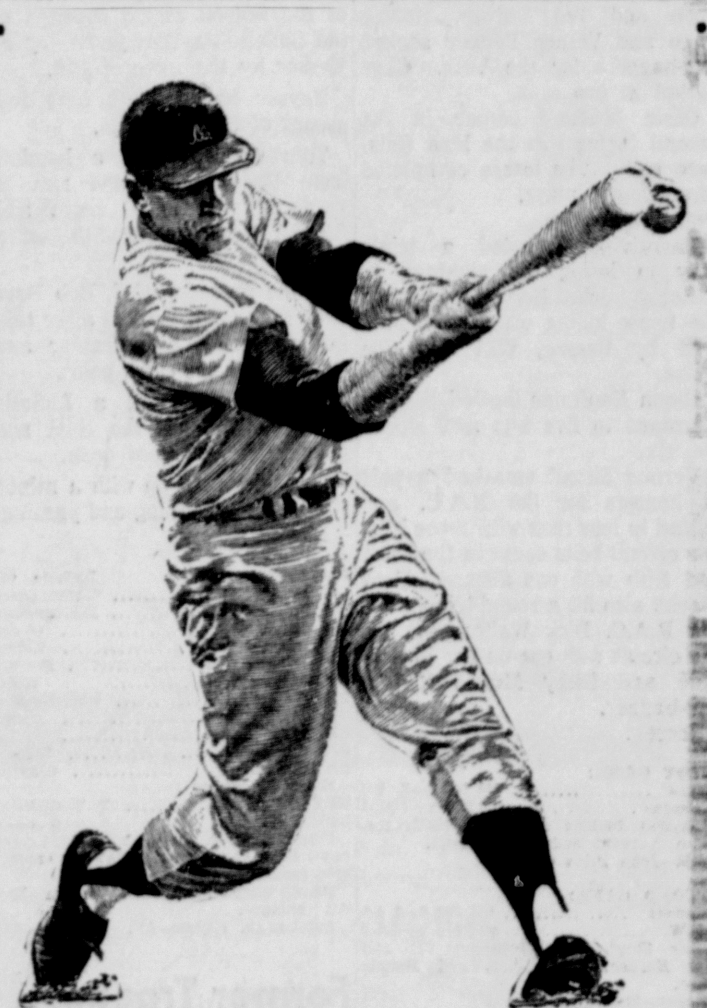

The law passed by Congress and recently signed by President Kennedy, sets up penalties for interstate exchange of gambling information.

Redmen, Ritter's And VFW Score Victories In Softball Tourney

Barrelville, Celanese And Moose Beaten

Eight Teams Left
Of Original 16;
Two Games Today

The number of teams battling it out for cash and glory in the annual Western Maryland Softball Tournament was reduced to eight from an original field of 16 when the Redmen, V.F.W. and Ritter's A. C. ushered out the Moose, Celanese A. A. and Barrelville Old Germans, respectively, in last evening's tripleheader at Penn Avenue Field.

In the opener the Redmen downed the Moose, 7-5, while the Vets eliminated the Silken, 4-1, and Ritter's disposed of Barrelville in the final tilt, 7-3.

Teams suffering two defeats in the tournament are eliminated.

The eight surviving teams are Hyndman VFW, Greenpoint Inn Old Exports, Kelco, Bennett's Transfer, Redmen, Sports Shoppe, VFW and Ritter's A.C.

Two Contests Today

Two games are scheduled today, Wednesday is an open date and there will be two games on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Four teams with 2-0 records will see action tonight. At 6 o'clock, Kelco faces Greenpoint Inn while at 7:30 the Hyndman Vets do battle with Bennett's Transfer.

In last night's opener, Allan Largent fired a 5-hitter and fanned four in twirling the Redmen to their second victory of the tournament over the Moose.

The Redmen collected 12 hits off Hayden Phillips. Largent rapped a triple and double, Denny Martin and J. Miller collected a double and single each and Bill Sites and Bill Cook smacked two-base hits. Phillips struck out six.

Belts Grand Slammer

Johnny Price clouted a grand slam homer in the 7th and also had a single to pace the Moose stickers. Paul McGregor had two for the losers.

Pete Elliott yielded only four hits and whiffed five as the V. F. W., champions of the Rocking Chair League ousted Celanese.

The Vets coupled three doubles with two singles for three of their runs in the third frame.

Mil Dean belted a leadoff homer in the 5th, Jim Eckard and George Stevenson had two hits each and Ted Durbin, Ronnie Cagle and Vernon Penner socked two-baggers for the Vets. Cagle batted in two runs.

Ozzie Nelson's homer in the second inning was the lone Celanese tally. The losers completed three double plays.

Full Triple Play

Barrelville executed a triple play in losing the nightcap to Ritter's. John Horwath hit into the triple killing which was handled by Cessna, Witt and Joe Glass.

Glenn Kauffman limited the Old Germans to five hits and struck out six.

Vernon Shroat smashed a pair of homers for the R.A.C. and batted in four runs with three hits. His circuit belts came in the third and fifth with one aboard. Fred Meeks also hit a round-tripper for the R.A.C. Dick Walters hit for the circuit with one on for Barrelville and Leroy Morris had a two-bagger.

Bisons Defeat Louisville, 2-0

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — Southpaw Bill Smith pitched a five-hit, 2-0 shutout over the defending champion Louisville Colonels Monday night to give the International League Buffalo Bisons a two-game lead in the Junior World Series.

The Bisons relied on speed, a home-run by Ted Savage and sparkling inner defense to defeat Moe Drabowsky, ace righthander of the American Assn. team.

The Bisons scored their other run in the first frame when Tony Curry walked with two out, and raced all the way home when Felix Torres looped a single to right field.

Smith struck out seven and issued only one walk while working out of jams in the third, fourth and sixth innings.

Former Trooper To Get Tryout As A.L. Umpire
BOSTON (UPI) — A former New York state trooper has been signed for an umpiring tryout starting Tuesday, American league president Joe Cronin announced today.

Alexander J. Salerno, 30, of Utica, N.Y. will begin his tryout during the Boston-Chicago double-header at Fenway park tomorrow afternoon and also will work during spring training next season.

Salerno, a former minor league player, began his umpiring career in the Pioneer league in 1957, advanced to the Eastern league in 1959, and has served in the Pacific Coast league during the past two seasons.

American league umpire supervisor Cal Hubbard said Salerno's contract had been conditionally purchased from the Pacific Coast league.

Beall-Fort Hill Game Is Saturday

The Beall-Fort Hill football game will be played here Saturday at 8 p. m. Coach Charles Lattimer of the Sentinels announced last evening.

A Beall schedule released before the season opened had the game set for Sept. 29 but that was incorrect, Lattimer said. A number of inquiries about the date of the game have been received at Fort Hill High School.

Lopez Signs 1962 Contract With Chicago

Trades Are Hinted
By White Sox Pilot

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — Al Lopez signed Monday to pilot the Chicago White Sox for another year, despite having one of the worst seasons of his managerial career.

His salary was unannounced, but reportedly it is near $50,000. Until the Sox finished third last year, Lopez never had managed a team lower than second place.

This year the Sox will finish fourth.

But this doesn't dishearten Lopez. "Sure, I'm disappointed in our club's performance, but that doesn't mean we don't have a good club," he said.

"Wholesale trades? I wouldn't say that, but I think we have good trading material."

Lopez, the only manager to crack New York Yankee superiority since 1949 with pennant winners at Cleveland in 1954 and Chicago in 1959, is going to shoot for the flag in 1962.

"Why not?" says the patient senior. "We have an excellent nucleus."

Three strong-armed pitchers, several proven stars and a few youngsters comprise the nucleus which Lopez and recently-named General Manager Ed Short believe will pull the Sox back into pennant contention.

The pitchers are left-handers Juan Pizarro, 24, Frank Baumann, 28, and right-hander Ray Herbert, 31. The proven stars are shortstop Luis Aparicio and center-fielder Jim Landis, and the youngsters are outfielder Floyd Robinson, infielder J. C. Martin and catcher Camilo Carreon.

This means that such veterans as outfielder Minnie Minoso, first baseman Roy Sievers, catcher Sherm Lollar and even second baseman Nellie Fox and possibly infielder-outfielder Al Smith could be put up as trade bait. Of this group, only Smith has had a good year.

Powell Is Named On All-Star Team

MONTREAL (AP)—John (Boog) Powell, one of the top prospects in the Baltimore Oriole farm system, has been named to the International League All-Stars.

Powell, a 19-year-old long-ball hitting first baseman-outfielder, played this season with Baltimore's Rochester, N. Y., farm club.

The 6-3, 245-pounder from Key West, Fla., hit well over .300 and was the league home run king with 32. The Orioles plan to give him a thorough trial next spring.

Packing its scoring punch into the first period, Meyersdale High School's Jayvees beat the Beall High junior varsity football team yesterday at Frostburg by the score of 13-6.

It was the opening game of the season for Coach Russ Fitzgerald's Little Mountaineers.

Lee ran 10 yards for the Pennsylvanians' first score and also booted the extra point. Late in the opening period, Meyersdale recovered a Beall fumble on the latter's 40 and two plays later D'Amico reached paydirt on a 20-yard end sweep.

Beall unleashed a passing attack in the final period and a 29-yard aerial from Mike Davis to Bruce Shirey carried to the three from where Ronnie Frazier took it over on a handoff from Davis. The latter's kick for the point was short.

Touch Grid Loops Will Meet Today

An organizational meeting for the Touch Football League will be held today at City Hall.

An adult and a High School League will be formed if there is sufficient interest. Representatives interested in entering a team in the High School League will meet at 7 p. m. and the Adult League meeting will be an hour later at 8 p. m.

The League will be set up similar to last year. Entry fee, $10; no forfeit fee; unlimited roster, and games will be played on Sunday afternoons. Last year there were seven teams in the Adult League and each team played a six game schedule.

The High School League had four teams with each team playing a regular schedule of six games.

Spectators Must Bring Own Chairs

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. (UPI) — Hereafter, spectators at Charles Town High School football games apparently are going to have to bring their own chairs if they don't want to stand.

The local American Legion club which owns the field has discovered its insurance does not cover protection for bleachers occupants and the seats are being removed during the football season.

Gentile Belt In Category With Maris

Grand Slam Came In 155th Contest

NEW YORK (UPI) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick said Monday that the major league record of five bases-loaded home runs tied by first baseman Jim Gentile of the Baltimore Orioles would be treated in the same category as Roger Maris' assault on Babe Ruth's mark.

That meant that Gentile's feat would be recognized as a record, but since it was completed in Baltimore's 155th game, it would bear a designation in the books that it was performed during a 162-game season.

Gentile hit his fifth grand-slam home run of the season Friday night against the Chicago White Sox. He thus topped the old American League mark of four and equalled the major league mark set by Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs in 1955.

Both Banks and Gentile will be listed in the record books for having hit five grand-slam homers in one season. There will be a notation, however, that Banks performed the feat in a 154-game schedule while Gentile's was done in a 162-game season.

"Gentile's record certainly will be recognized," Frick said.

Cases Heard In Garrett County Court

The September term of Garrett County Circuit Court at Oakland opened yesterday morning with three cases being heard and a number either dismissed or continued.

Smiley Leonard Everett Lloyd, charged with assisting in unlawful escape of three prisoners from the county jail on September 11, 1960, was found not guilty by a petit jury which deliberated about two hours.

Donald Norman Clark and Preston Lee Cox, who escaped from the Boys Forestry Camp near Lonaconing, and were indicted for larceny and receiving stolen goods and breach of prison, entered a plea of guilty yesterday in court.

Judge Morgan C. Harris sentenced them to the Maryland Reformatory for Males not to exceed a period of one year to run concurrently with the sentence of the forestry camp. They allegedly stole a car belonging to William H. Opel.

Porter DeWitt, charged with non-support of his wife and three children, entered a plea of not guilty but was found guilty by Judge Harris who ordered the man to pay $20 a week toward their support.

The case had been transferred to the higher court from Robert M. Maroney, trial magistrate.

The case of Louis A. Jones who is charged with false pretense, has been continued to the next term of court in March. The case has been carried on the docket since September, 1960, at which time it was continued.

In the appeal cases heard, a petit jury returned a not guilty verdict in the case of Chester McFarland charged with operating a motor vehicle on a revoked license. Magistrate Edward L. Crowe had fined him $100 and costs earlier this year.

Edward T. Lyons, of Cumberland, pleaded not guilty to driving 50 miles an hour but was found guilty by Judge Harris, who upheld the decision of Magistrate Maroney who fined the Cumberland motorist $15 and costs.

Dismissed were the cases against James W. Bennett on appeal from Magistrate Maroney, on conviction of secreting a television set in conditional sales contract, fined $100 and costs or 30 days in jail in default; and the case against Harry Deal, Turkey Neck, on appeal from Magistrate Maroney convicted of burning leaves near woodland with no safety strip and fined $25 and costs.

Three cases were continued: Jack Edward Hinebaugh, on appeal from Magistrate Maroney, October, 1959, when he was found guilty of reckless driving and fined $100 and costs.

Herndon Rine Athey, Keyser, on appeal from Magistrate Maroney, on conviction of failing to drive to right of center of road, fined $15 and costs.

Richard Maxwell Bernard, Mt. Lake Park, on appeal from Magistrate Maroney, conviction on three charges: driving under influence of liquor, fined $100 and costs or 30 days in jail; reckless driving and fined $25 and costs or 25 days in jail; operating a motor vehicle while privilege was refused, fined $100 and costs or 30 days in jail.

Placed on the "stet" docket was the case of two Grantsville men who will not be tried unless State's Attorney W. Dwight Stover decides later to prosecute.

Olin Rounds and Arthur Rounds, Jr., Grantsville, on appeal from Magistrate Maroney, convicted of assault and battery upon Walter Broadwater, sentenced to a year in House of Correction; and another conviction of assault and battery upon Melvin Broadwater, with same sentence.

Mathias To Present City With New Flag

John J. Long, commissioner of streets and public property, yesterday told the Mayor and Council that the City of Cumberland will soon be able to display a 50-star flag in the Council Chamber.

He said the flag will be supplied free by Rep. Charles McC. Mathias Jr. The present flag has only 48 stars, Mr. Long said.

Rainbow Spotted After Dark

Several residents of Lonaconing reported last night having seen a rainbow in the sky after a heavy rainfall.

They attributed this unusual event to the fact that the moon was almost full last night. It had reached its peak Saturday night.

Jewish Festival Begins

Rabbi Israel Wolmark, spiritual leader of Beth Jacob Synagogue, and Mrs. Robert Dezen, president of the Women's League of the congregation, are shown at the synagogue where the Feast of Succoth is being observed. The festival is a time of thanksgiving and gratitude for the autumn harvest.

Beth Jacob Synagogue Marks Feast Of Succoth

Beth Jacob Synagogue began the observance of the Feast of Succoth Sunday, according to Rabbi Israel Wolmark, spiritual leader.

The Feast of Succoth or Feast of Tabernacles commemorates the manner in which the ancient Israelites lived in the desert during their travels from Egyptian bondage towards the Land of Promise.

The feast is observed by special prayer services in Jewish homes, synagogues and religious schools. Booths containing the fruits and greenery of the fall season are built and special blessings of thanks for the beauty and bounty of nature are recited in them.

Mrs. Jack Yankelevitz is chairman of the committee which made arrangements for the festival at the synagogue. She was assisted by Marvin Kaplan, Mrs. Sander Lewins, Mrs. Harold Marx and Mrs. Benjamin Marx.

The local congregation will observe the festival for seven days, Rabbi Wolmark said.

Driver Held After Chase

A Hyndman, Pa., man was being held in the city jail last night for a hearing in Trial Magistrate Court today on four state motor vehicle charges.

The charges were placed early yesterday morning by officer Harold E. Gibson and Detective Royce Clayton after a chase through the city at speeds which at times exceeded 70 miles an hour.

The officer said two teen-age boys riding in the car were released in the custody of their parents.

They said a sailor booked as Vern Mowry, Hyndman, refused to stop at Second and Grand Avenues and took off for the Industrial Highway, where the car he was driving nearly wrecked when it hit a bank at the intersection of Oldtown Road and the boulevard.

The car was stopped in the Narrows, Detective Clayton said, after it ran through stop signs and red lights on Baltimore Street.

Potomac Park Area Residents To Meet

Residents of the Potomac Park area will meet tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. in the basement of Potomac Park Evangelical United Brethren Church, to discuss water and sanitation problems.

Police Staff Meeting Set Tomorrow

Parking, Traffic Will Be Discussed

A number of proposals concerning parking and traffic problems are scheduled for discussion at a Police Department staff meeting tomorrow.

The meeting will be held at 9 a. m. in the office of Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore Fleming and will be attended by staff officials.

One of the subjects, Mr. Fleming said, is a proposal to change the city's parking meter ordinance.

Parking meters are in operation here from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. and a proposal to change the hours from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. is under consideration.

Mr. Fleming said a number of parking meters are now located in residential areas, and delaying the starting time until 9 a. m. would allow residents to park near their homes until they are ready to go to work.

He said he would like to have the proposal discussed by department heads before recommending it to the Mayor and Council.

A discussion of the city's ordinance on sidewalk parking is also scheduled.

Mr. Fleming said the discussion may result in the removal of certain parking meters to allow space for trucks to load and unload, so there would be no need to drive up on sidewalks to make deliveries.

The operation of the new traffic lights on Baltimore Street will also be discussed by the police supervisors.

Mr. Fleming said plans will also be set in motion for handling traffic problems during the Thanksgiving day football game here.

He said he expects to ask Lt. Donald H. Smith and Lt. Wilbur E. Shank to work out the traffic control plan.

Truck Bed Injures Westernport Man

A 21-year-old Westernport man was admitted to Miners Hospital yesterday afternoon with injuries sustained when a truck bed reportedly fell on him at Reynolds near Barton.

Edward Dishong was undergoing surgery last night at the hospital, according to attaches, who said he suffered a right leg injury and possible internal injuries.

The man was reported to have been working with others in placing a bed on the chassis of a truck when the bed fell on him. He was taken to the hospital at Frostburg in the Eichhorn ambulance.

Rotary To See Film

A film on Communism, "Encirclement 1961" will be shown by Fred Hill, president of the Jaycees, at a meeting of the Rotary Club today at 12:15 p. m. at YMCA.

Longer Walk Interval Set At Crossing

School children using the North Centre and Valley Street intersection will get a break under a plan which will be adopted by the Cumberland Police Department.

Police Commissioner Philmore Fleming said yesterday that Floyd G. Harper, of Wes-Mar Communications, will meet tomorrow with police supervisors to explain how the "Walk" interval on the traffic light at the intersection can be changed.

Mr. Fleming said Mr. Harper reports that the control for the light can be modified so officers can switch to a longer walk interval when the intersection is being used by school children.

He said an officer is assigned to the crossing when children are going to and from school whenever one is available.

The addition of a device to increase the present four-second walk interval would allow officers to set the control before school time and return it to the normal sequence after school is in session.

Mr. Fleming said he will discuss the plan with officials of schools whose students must use the crossing.

The suit was filed against the Beckwith Machinery Company, a Delaware corporation and The Coporation Trust Inc., 10 Light Street, Baltimore 2, (resident agent.)

Mr. Wilson had made a contract with the defendant to repair the plaintiff's bulldozer. While attempting to start the bulldozer, the agent burned the Westernport man with gasoline causing him to be hospitalized, according to the declaration.

Protests Fail To Halt Action On Street Plan

Work On Bedford To Be Restudied

The Mayor and Council yesterday adopted resurfacing ordinances for 12 downtown area streets but voted to delay, pending further study, advertising for bids for improving Bedford Street after residents protested the plan.

Opposition to the plan was expressed by residents of Bedford Street, between North Mechanic Street and the B & O Railroad, and by Charles Paul Roeder, 609 Piedmont Avenue, who wanted to speak on all streets involved.

Bedford Street residents presented a petition through a spokesman, Carl Winfield Jr., of 148 Bedford, who said it contains signatures of all but three property owners in the area involved.

Present Petition
The petition pointed out there was no need for resurfacing and concern was expressed over the condition of curbing which in some places is less than two inches. In times of heavy rainfall, water flows over the sidewalk and into basements, the spokesman said.

Others heard on the Bedford Street project were Mrs. Howard Twigg, 154 Bedford; Carl Winfield Sr.; Mrs. Mary Straw, 146 Bedford; and C. J. Goodrich, 801 Mann's Terrace, owner of property at 143 Bedford.

Arguments included protests that curbs are so low trucks and cars park on and damage sidewalks; the majority of residents are not in favor; there is no need for street improvement and when residents want it, they will ask for it.

The Mayor and Council passed the resurfacing ordinance 5-0 and when residents of Bedford Street were informed this was the final action, verbal blasts began. Later in the meeting, Council agreed to hold up bids and restudy the Bedford project.

"You mean to tell me with a petition signed by 95 per cent of the taxpayers and with eight property owners here, that you passed this ordinance?" the Senior Mr. Winfield asked.

Protests Action
"What good are us taxpayers?" he continued, "I think this is ridiculous."

Mr. Goodrich questioned the advisability of citizens appearing before council to express their views "when you go ahead regardless. I thought we would get some consideration or that at least you members of council would go and have a look at it (the street)."

Prior to the Bedford Street vote, City Engineer Charles R. Nuzum had said that the curb situation does exist on Bedford and a number of other places and that is the reason it is recommended that smooth seal to a depth of 4 in. an inch be used instead of two inches of blacktop.

He said the rain problem will continue until such time as the storm sewer system is expanded but added later that resurfacing of Bedford would not worsen the present water situation. He also recalled that there are plans drawn for using a heater-planer to remove the worn surface of some streets but added this will be an expensive proposition.

Hasn't Changed Opinion
Asked by Street Commissioner John J. Long if he still recommended the Bedford Street project in view of the petition, Nuzum replied "I haven't changed my opinion on smooth seal."

The Engineering Department takes into consideration a number of factors in designating a street which are not evident to the layman," he said.

College Officials Pleased With Initial Operations

Officials of Allegany Community College said last night they were well pleased with the smooth manner in which the college began its first day of classes yesterday.

Dr. Robert S. Zimmer, college president, said he was pleased with first day of operations even though there had been only three months in which to get things ready.

Dr. Zimmer said much of the credit for the progress of the college was due to the efforts of the Board of Trustees, Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools for Allegany County, and Joseph T. Downey, supervisor of maintenance for the county school board.

Night classes will begin tonight, Dr. Zimmer said, and registration for all classes will continue through tomorrow.

Dr. Zimmer also announced the names of instructors who will teach part-time at the college on Frederick Street.

Dr. Wayne Hill, principal at Beall High School in Frostburg, will teach mathematics, and Milton E. Abraham, a chemical engineer at the Amcelle plant of the Celanese Corporation, will instruct a mechanical drawing class.

Curtis O. Gilpin, a teacher at Fort Hill High School, will teach another math class, and Dr. Myron L. Simpson, 112 Bedford Street, will instruct a zoology class and laboratory period.

Other part-time instructors will be Robert Williams of Central YMCA, who will conduct physical education classes, and Rev. George A. Hazen, pastor of Zion United Church of Christ, who will teach French.

William Smerling, college registrar, also will teach a sociology class at night.

Dr. C. Waldon Skinner, an instructor at Frostburg State Teachers College, will conduct a night class in physiology for 15 area school teachers who are working toward certification in the physical education field.

The special course which Dr. Skinner will teach was approved yesterday by Dr. W. T. Boston, director of certification and accreditation for the State Department of Education.

First Day Tax Collections Exceed $50,000

More than $50,000 of 1961-1962 taxes were collected yesterday, the first full day since tax bills went out, according to Mrs. Lucille Roeder, finance commissioner.

She said the City Tax Office reported collections of $49,248.18 at 2 p. m., and that the total included only about $2,000 paid for water and sewage treatment services.

Several hundred dollars of taxes were paid Friday, within hours after residents found tax bills in the mails.

Lonaconing Council Orders Police Shakeup

Claim Department Not Doing Job

The Mayor and Council of Lonaconing last night, after a lengthy and heated discussion, served notice on the town's police officers that if they do not intend to enforce the law and do their jobs they had better resign.

Prime target of Mayor Virgil Alexander and several of the councilmen was Patrolman James W. Foote, who has served on Lonaconing's three-man police force for about four years.

Mayor Alexander said that the police of the town have made themselves and the Mayor and Council "a laughing stock of the area" because of their attitude, indifference and general failure to enforce the law. Fighting, brawling, public intoxication and other crimes continue and are growing worse, he declared.

Fight Cited

Singled out as the latest incident of inefficiency, Mayor Alexander pointed out, was a serious fight on Jackson Street last Saturday night involving a Barton man and two men from Lonaconing. One man was taken to a hospital, suffering from severe injuries, including a possible broken arm.

The Mayor said a number of citizens had reported to him that Patrolman Foote was present during the altercation and did not exercise his full duty in breaking up the brawl. Some citizens, the Mayor asserted, reported that "he just stood by."

Commissioner James Berry said he was present when the officer finally brought two of the men to the town lockup and in his opinion, the officer was not using his full authority or best judgment in dealing with them. He said the officer should have deputized four or five citizens standing by and obtained sufficient help to subdue the men and break up the brawl before it went as far as it did.

Commissioner Benjamin E. Zarger also reported that he too has been approached by reliable citizens about this and other cases where the police have indicated some lack of initiative and failed to take proper and speedy action.

Commissioner Harold W. Moyer said that when he was a member of the Civil Service Commission several years ago, he recommended that the police officers undergo some form of police training before they are assigned to the force. Such training is available at FBI police schools and at the State Police Academy. He said that for the past four years the police department has been without proper supervision and that it has become a common practice to call the State Police and have them do the work of the town police.

Mayor Alexander said this is not proper. He added that if the town is employing officers to do a job then they should do the job or quit.

Several Versions

Police Commissioner Alex E. Patton said he had heard several versions of what happened Saturday night and that he doubted if the police department and the Mayor and Council have become a laughing stock. If they are, he said, he hadn't heard anything about it. He said he had heard no complaints.

Council instructed Commissioner Patton to "crack down" and see that the police do police work and was reminded by the Mayor and one of the councilmen that on a previous occasion Patrolman Foote had arrested a prisoner, placed him in jail and then failed to lock the door. The prisoner walked out.

This is the kind of situation that borders on the ridiculous, Mayor Alexander observed.

Commissioner Patton was authorized to get prices on a new police cruiser when it was reported the present police car is in bad condition. Commissioner Zarger said he had suggested before that the town should have a police chief who would be held responsible.

Hampshire Co. Man's Trial October 26

William Moreland, 21, of the Pin Oak area of Hampshire County, W. Va. near the Morgan County line, will be tried in Circuit Court at Romney on October 26 in connection with the rape of a 11-year-old girl on June 10.

He was arrested the following day and detained in the county jail and was released later under $2,500 bond. He is charged with the attempted rape of the girl, authorities said.

The jury trial will be presided over by Judge H. Gus Munzing who on September 19 sentenced Brother Ginevan, 27, of the Pin Oak area, to five to 20 years for the rape of the same girl.

Judge Munzing, who presided at the two-day trial recommended the term be served at the Medium Security Prison in Huttonsville. On September 6 a petit jury found Ginevan guilty of rape but recommended mercy.

The young girl had been attending a festival at the Levels School and was attacked after she became separated from her mother, authorities said.

College Instructor Meets Students
